4. Action:

5. Other Business
*The temporary dwelling on 315th Ave., property belonging to Claire Lynch, is still being used. The township has notified Sibley County in writing of the septic violations to the Sibley Co. Ordinances, as the temporary dwellers are using a hole in the ground for all their septic/wastewater. John made a motion to send a letter to Lynch that the temporary dwelling should be vacated by April 1st. Steve seconded the motion and it was passed. The letter will suggest that they can camp at High Island County Park in Jessenland. Martha will follow up with the county on the septic issue.

*Kyle reported on the Annual meeting that was on Tuesday, March 8th at 7pm.

*Replacement for John Skelley is needed. Matt Skelley, John’s son, is willing to fill the position. The Town Board will be informed and asked to appoint Matt.

*Voting for officers on p&z was held. John nominated Kyle to remain as chair and Rosemary as clerk and Steve as new vice chair. Steve seconded the motion and it was passed.
6. Adjourned. (John/Steve/Passed)
7. Next regular meeting: April 18, 2022 7:00p.m.
